You can work with Tarot to strengthen your connection to the upper world and give voice to spirit. During the workshop there will be exercises designed to hone your psychic/mediumistic faculty as well as deepen your Tarot reading ability. You will look at various spreads and there will be opportunity for discussion. If you have been wanting to combine these two disciplines then this workshop is a must do for you. You will learn how to connect with confidence to messengers from the world of light and how to translate these messages through the rich symbolism in Tarot.

12p.m. Anton Rossi – How to Read for Yourself: The Good, the Bad and Reality. Pros and cons of reading for yourself? Look at different spreads and keeping it simple. Using different decks for one question answers including Yes/No questions. To read or not to read - know when it is best to let it go and not use the cards, we look at alternative methods.

3p.m. Israel Ajose -Tarot + Sex + Ritual= Magick The world of imagery and sex have a long been powerful agents & ingredients in the world of Magick which is why sexual desires can be harnessed for magical works. This workshop will enable you to learn about the power of Tarot magick & spell work merging with showing you how to use sexual energy to empower any aspect of your life, also using Tarot to create magical environments, rituals, amulets and talismans.

4p.m Maria Antoniou – Learning to Receive: How the High Priestess Develops her Intuition – The High Priestess (HP) is an aspirational figure for many tarot lovers. She is intimately connected with Divine truth and her own intuition. We may read books, attend workshops, and practice at home, aspiring to develop our spiritual knowledge and abilities. But to embody the energy of the HP we have to stop actively 'doing' and learn to passively 'receive' – not easy! This talk examines the qualities of the HP and includes several short exercises for stepping into your own Priestess power. We'll also talk about how to maintain the HP state in our busy daily lives.
