11.45 – 12.15 Neil Kelso: The World through the eyes of The Magician!

12.15– 12.45 Jill Dawson shares her new Book 'Pixie', followed by book signings

12.45 Break (lunch not included)

1.30- 2 Lunchtime workshop with Kate May: Manifesting with the Magician and his Tools. This mini workshop introduces The Magician in tarot as a symbol of manifestation, personal power, and turning intention into reality.

2.10 – 3.20 Barbara Karnekamp: What is your type of Magician? We will take a deep dive into the famous magicians who have been inhabitants of London and their lessons on Western esoteric magick. Tarot is, steeped in magickal lore, and with the help of the Famous Four of Magick, we are going to do our own little magick. This workshop is going to be a mix of bare-bones magick, stories, witty bits and the spellbinding power that lies just beneath the surface of our Tarot cards!

3.20 – 3.50 Break

3.50 – 4.40 Susan Wands: The Life of Pamela Colman Smith. A slide show depicting the life of Pamela Colman Smith. Rarely seen photographs are presented in this exploration of the mother of the modern tarot deck. From her birthplace in London to Manchester, Jamaica, New York City, London, Cornwall and Bude, we uncover the scope of this amazing artist's life.

4.45 Jessica Adams: Astrology and Tarot (Pre-recorded) Shares her latest book with Sunday Times bestselling author Rachel Wells: Your Birthday (Hachette).

5.15 p.m. Day session closes

6.30 p.m. Dinner in Liffey Suite (Included)

7.30 p.m. Grab a drink from the bar and enjoy our annual auction, followed by a relaxing evening with Sasha Graham sharing Ghost Stories by the Fire. Sasha Graham's Ghost Stories by the Fire is a cosy, intimate space where the audience is invited to share their real-life, creepy, paranormal stories. No topic is off limits. Hauntings, near-death experiences, UFO's, spirit communications, wild nature encounters, and so much more. Bring your stories, we want to hear them!

1.15 – 1.45 Lunchtime workshop with Titania Fae: The Magician's Shores. - From the Golden Dawn to Cornwall: Cornwall has a way of holding stories between sea and stone. This talk follows Pamela Colman Smith in her later years, shaped by her early experiences, including her time as a member of the Golden Dawn, exploring the landscapes she lived in and the magical currents that shaped her life and how her story finds its echoes in the magicians that follow today.'

1.50 – 3.20 Carrie Paris: One of the most common challenges diviners face is timing. When will I relocate? When will they return my love? When will my luck change? Readers often perceive what is unfolding yet feel uncertain about when events will occur or how best to engage with the moment at hand. This workshop offers a practical and magical framework for predictive timing, grounded in tarot, planetary rhythm, and the archetype of the Magician as the bridge between celestial guidance and earthly manifestation

3.50-4.40 James Jude: The Talismanic Magician: Polymorphic Soul and the Recursive Lemniscate of the Arcana. This session explores The Magician as the talismanic root of the Tarot, the singular engine of an adaptive feedback loop (polymorphic inheritance) that ensouls the entire deck. Discover how The Magician serves as a talisman for deep, actional change and learn how to command the deck's elemental architecture by mastering The Magician's unique role as the interface for all seventy-eight cards.

4.40 – 5.15 Liz Dean: Unlock your inner wisdom with The Heart's Path Tarot – (Pre-recorded). In a world often preoccupied with logic, this tarot deck offers a refreshing return to heart-centred wisdom. Learning to read tarot from the heart helps us tap into the universe's collective energy and open ourselves to profound insights for personal growth, clarity, and empowerment.

5.30 Kim closes the conference
